

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)

vs.)	REPORT AND
)
JOHN S. CRESSON,)	RECOMMENDATION
Defendant.)

On August 4, 2005, defendant John S. Cresson (Cresson), together with his counsel, Deborah D. Cunningham, appeared before the undersigned magistrate judge, waived indictment, and consented to the filing of the Information herein. Cresson was advised of the charge, the penalties, and the right to appear before a United States District Judge. After orally consenting to proceed before a magistrate judge, Cresson entered a plea of guilty to Counts I and II of the Information.

After being sworn, Cresson was orally examined by the undersigned magistrate judge in open court as required by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11. Cresson also was given the advice required by that Rule. Finally, Cresson was given a full opportunity to address the court and ask questions.

Counsel for the government and counsel for Cresson were given the opportunity to suggest additional questions by the court. Moreover, both counsel orally certified that they were of the opinion that the pleas were knowing, intelligent and voluntary, and that there was a factual basis for Cresson's pleas of guilty to Counts I and II of the Information.

Therefore, I find and conclude that: (1) the pleas are knowing, intelligent, and voluntary; (2) there is a factual basis for the pleas; (3) the provisions of Rule 11 and any other provisions of the law governing the submission of guilty pleas have been complied with; (4) a petition to enter a plea of guilty, on a form approved by the court, was completed by Cresson, Cresson's counsel and counsel for the government, and such petition was placed in the court file; (5) the plea agreement is in writing and is filed in the court file; (6) there are no agreements or stipulations other than those contained in the written plea agreement.

IT IS RECOMMENDED TO JUDGE LAURIE SMITH CAMP that:

1. She accept the guilty plea and find the defendant, John S. Cresson, guilty of the crimes set forth in Counts I and II of the Information to which Cresson tendered a guilty plea;
2. Since the plea agreement contains a provision under Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(1)(C), she not accept the written plea agreement at this time but reserve acceptance until the time of sentencing.
